Dear Mr. Hughes,

I'm very sorry that your note of the fifth of May got lost in a stack that accumulated on my desk. I also did not remember that I intended to write you.

I appreciate what you say in the note and on page 19 of your "Square Peg for a Round Hole."

There is a minor error in it. I did publish seven books but one was on the King assassination. There were six on JFK's.

Good luck with your book!

Sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
